DONNA'S DETAILS

the ACCESSORIES TRENDS EDIT

We're dressing in a more relaxed way, and our accessories have loosened up to match, right down to the hardware. Accessories Editor Donna Wallace shows you which new trends are worth buying...

Cotton-mix top, £24.99, H&M.
Silk trousers, £540, Isa Arfen. Polyester bag, £220, Simone Rocha

GET TWISTED

The freshest pieces of SS16 are of the bowed variety, from micro to mega, on the catwalk and IRL. Why? Because the pared-back look works best with a flourish or two, as seen at Versace, Acne and Simone Rocha. This is pretty with a strong, deconstructed edge. Less frilly, more modern and tough, because femininity doesn't mean delicate.

Leather shoes, £70, French Connection

Leather sandals, £50, Topshop

Above: Silk trousers, £540, Isa Arfen. Denim shoes, £128, AllSaints

Suede boots, £110, Aldo

Leather bag, £1,050, Versace

Leather shoes, £120, Kurt Geiger

ANNA LAUB, 34, FOUNDER OF LUXURY EYEWEAR, SWIMWEAR AND ACCESSORIES LABEL PRISM LONDON

The piece: My metallic leather platform Palawan Prism sandals. They're cool, but comfortable and I can pair them with something very dressed down, like jeans or a dress.

The appeal: I like a bit of sparkle in small doses. The metallic sheen of these shoes complement the look rather than overshadow it.

The approach: I like to keep it simple, minimal and easy.

The styling: I'm a no-fuss dresser and go for easy pieces like a long dress with leggings or a pencil skirt and sweater. I like to keep it simple, minimal and elegant. If I want something more, I'll add sunglasses, sandals or espadrilles in interesting colours and textures.

The attitude: Be comfortable in what you wear, because it shows when you're not. ▶
