Out on the COLOUR CLASH

1

WHEN IT COMES TO wearing colour, we all know the rules: no pink with red, blue and green should never be seen, top-to-toe orange makes you look like a carrot, and so on. But there's a new colour code in town – and it's breaking all the rules. Colour-crazed street-style stars are taking a new approach to clashing brights, and they're making us wonder if we've been doing it wrong all along. That tomato-red skirt you love? Pair it with a Pepto-Bismol pink blouse. The mustard-yellow bag you haven't quite been brave enough to try? It's a perfect match for a cobalt-blue knit. And who knew that orange and burgundy looked so bloomin' marvellous together? Whichever way you mix it, it's time to ditch your winter neutrals – let's get clashing!

BALANCE BLUE AGAINST YELLOW

Seek style inspiration from an unlikely source – the Ikea sign – and match cobalt blue with yolk yellow.

SEE RED... AND PINK

Throw the rule book out the window with colour-pop pinks and reds.

PAIR ORANGE WITH BURGUNDY

Pumpkin orange and rich burgundy shades are a mid-winter match made in Pantone heaven.
